

customRE | A Custom Structured Solution

Tailored Services for Optimizing Investments in Renewable Energy customRE solutions are tailored strategies facilitated through traditional retail supply agreements with flexible contract terms. They can involve a range of services, including:

- Small-scale investments in new renewable construction, primarily solar and wind
- Risk management of price and volume exposure for power purchase agreements
- Administration of scheduling, settlements, billing, and reporting for power purchase agreements
- Management of accounting and compliance requirements, such as Dodd-Frank record keeping and reporting and FERC licensing, for power purchase agreements

WHO can benefit?

- Businesses with existing power purchase agreements looking to better manage annual operating budgets and total energy costs
- Companies looking to invest in renewable energy through flexible contract terms
- Customers with ranging consumption profiles (5 to 10 MW up to 100+ MW)
- Customers lacking supply expertise to effectively manage risks
- Organizations with limited bandwidth for facilitating existing power purchase agreements

WHY consider customRE?

- Flexible contract terms
- Maximizes risk reduction opportunities for lowering energy costs and reducing exposure
- Optimizes financial and operational performance
- Upholds critical accounting and compliance requirements
- Simplifies complex market-based operations
